EXECUTIVE ROUNDTABLES

Business driven, leading-edge

Our Executive Roundtables have convened over 250 thought leadership and sustainability events since 1997, providing executive leaders with unique and exclusive platform to share strategic insights, learnings, and best practices on innovative topics related to business and the environment.

Expert content development and event production

We manage every aspect of the event, including:

- Content development
- Speaker identification and invitations
- Attendee invitations
- Marketing/PR
- Event planning/logistics

Prefer to be involved in the content and speaker development? We'll work with your comfort level, but you can be confident we'll take care of every detail.
